The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Becker.

Becker is directed to perfecting printing. See col. 2, lines 43-44. Impression cylinders 1 and 2 read on the claimed cylinders. See col. 2, lines 65-66. Turning drum 3 reads on the claimed inverter drum with transfer drum 5 reading on the claimed transfer cylinder. Transfer drum 5 passes the sheet from impression cylinder 1 to a storage drum 4 which in turn passes the sheet to turning drum 3. See col. 2, lines 65-68. The storage drum 4 has two sheet storage areas. This reads on the claimed support assigned to the transfer cylinder.

Regarding claim 4, Becker discloses use of sucking devices 12 shown in fig. 1 with openings shown in fig. 3 as being disposed in a region of an outer side of the storage drum. See col. 3, lines 13-16.

Claims 2-3 and 5-10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 11-12 stand allowed.
